

H1STREET
SKATEBOARDS

Resurrection of a Revolution

The H-Street Skateboard Company was formed in 1986 by professional skateboarder Tony Mag and his bro Mike Ternasky. The two sought out industry leader George Hamad to form the first skateboard company that was run by skateboarders. Inspired by Powell's success in making skateboard video's but without a large film budget available, Tony and Mike theorized that one might be able to make skateboard video's with cheap VHS cameras and edit them at home, on VCR's. This was the first basic home video equipment available early in the 80's. The two friends also sought some of the most innovative skateboarders of the time, like Ron Allen, Danny Way and Matt Hensley. Together with T-Mag, the four became a part of a legendary team, which also consisted of a host of other great skaters at the time.

One summer later, the video Shackle Me Not was born and would change the way that skateboard video's were made from that point on. A year later, Louisiana swamp rat Sal Barbier was added to the team, along with Alphonzo Rawls and several other top skaters of that time and the video Hokus Pokus was made, which would take the world by storm and together with Shackle Me Not, the videos became some of the most watched skate video's of all time. H-Street would eventually produce five major video's, with such notable skaters as Eric Koston, Mike Carrol, Jason Rogers, Colby Carter, Chad Vogt and many other top pro's of that era.

The company also produced a host of innovative and original skateboard products, most notably Tony Mag's "Hell Concave", a board with an extreme amount of concave, that extended throughout the tail and nose of the board.

In the early 90's, Mike suddenly and tragically passed away in a car accident and Tony Mag went on to do other creative enterprises in the industry, eventually becoming founder of Osiris Shoes.

H-Street became a memory, but skateboarders of all ages kept watching those ground breaking and legendary videos!

In 2008, Tony Mag and George got back together to resurrect the H-Street brand of Skateboards and today the company produces a number of high quality skateboard products that caters to all forms of skateboarding.

For the high flying T-Mag, the Mega Ramp was a Gods send. The Mega is the brain child of Danny Way, who back in the H-Street days was always building really innovative ramps as a kid. This photo was shot during the X Games in 2005 and offers a unique perspective to what skateboarding can be.

The Motley Crew

HACKETT PHOTO

THE H-STREET TEAM WAS ALWAYS AN ECLECTIC GROUP OF RIDERS AND INDIVIDUALS, WHICH WAS SOMETIMES REFERRED TO AS "THE MOTLEY CREW" (NOT TO BE CONFUSED WITH THE BAND). WE'RE BUILDING THE TEAM ON THAT SAME PHILOSOPHY, THAT SKATEBOARDING IS SUCH A STRONG COMMON TRAIT, THAT YOU DON'T ALSO NEED TO BE THE SAME AGE, COLOR, KIND OF SKATER, LIKE THE SAME MUSIC OR FOOD, OR HAVE ANYTHING ELSE IN COMMON, BESIDES A PASSION FOR SKATEBOARDING. WE'RE BUILDING A TEAM OF LEGENDS, STARTING WITH

T-MAG, RON ALLEN, ART GODOY AND FORMER WORLD CHAMPION EDDIE "EL GATO" ELGUERA. WE ADDED SUPER LEGEND DAVE "THE GNAR" HACKETT. WE ALSO BACK ALLYSHA BERGADO, A 13 YEAR GIRL THAT RIPS POOLS AND VERT LIKE NO OTHER LITTLE GIRL ON THE PLANET. SO THERE'S YOUR MOTLEY CREW. WE'LL GET AROUND TO ADDING TO THIS TEAM, PROBABLY BE BUILDING A PRO TEAM AT SOME POINT AND MAYBE EVEN PUTTING TOGETHER ANOTHER H-STREET VIDEO, TO SHOWCASE THE INCREDIBLE TALENT OF THESE GUYS, BUT MORE IMPORTANTLY, AFTER SKATING FOR MORE THAN 25 YEARS, THESE GUYS STILL RIP AND THEY LOVE IT. CREW CAPTAIN TONY MAG GOT ALL THIS CRAZINESS STARTED IN 1987, WHEN HE HAD THE IDEA THAT SKATEBOARD COMPANIES SHOULD BE RUN BY SKATERS, NOT GUYS IN SUITS. WITH THE SUCCESS OF H-STREET AND THIS IDEA, THE SKATEBOARDING INDUSTRY CHANGED FOREVER.

Ron Allen

RON'S BEEN SKATING LONGER THAN PRETTY MUCH ANYONE ELSE. RON WAS A HUGE PART OF THE ORIGINAL H-STREET TEAM AND ITS SUCCESS IN THE 80'S. RON BROUGHT A PERSPECTIVE TO H-STREET THAT WAS TRULY UNIQUE. WHEN HE'S NOT SINGING OR DOING ART, RON RIDES FOR SATORI AND SKATES EVERYDAY IN THE SF BAY AREA, WHEN HE'S NOT ON TOUR WITH HIS FRIENDS.

Eddie "El Gato" Elguera

EDDIE WAS A WORLD CHAMPION SKATEBOARDER IN THE LATE 70'S AND EARLY 80'S, AROUND THE TIME WHEN TONY MAG FIRST SHOWED UP ON THE WEST COAST OF THE USA. EDDIE WAS ONE OF THE FIRST SKATEBOARDERS THAT BROUGHT TECHNICAL SKATING TO A LEVEL WHERE IT WAS POSSIBLE TO SEE WHAT SKATEBOARDING WAS GOING TO TURN INTO EVENTUALLY. TONY MAG LOOKED UP TO EDDIE, AS DID MANY SKATERS, SO WHEN EDDIE ASKED TO BE ON THE H-STREET TEAM YEARS LATER, T-MAG IMMEDIATELY AGREED AND WITH T-MAG AND H-STREET, EDDIE RELAUNCHED HIS SKATING CAREER IN THE LATE 80'S AND PROVED HE WAS JUST AS RELEVANT THEN. SINCE THEN, EDDIE HAS BECOME A PASTOR AND HAS HELPED THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE LIVE BETTER LIVES. EDDIE STILL SKATES WHEN THERE'S TIME AND LIVES IN PALM SPRINGS, CA, WHERE HE PRACTICES AT THE ROCK CHURCH.

YOU CAN'T REALLY TALK ABOUT ART GODOY WITHOUT ALSO TALKING ABOUT HIS TWIN BROTHER STEVE. BOTH HAVE BEEN A MAJOR FORCE IN SKATEBOARDING FOR DECADES. BOTH ART AND STEVE ARE ALSO WORLD RENOWNED TATTOO ARTISTS, WHO ALSO DID SOME OF THE BEST GRAPHICS FOR H-STREET. ART CURRENTLY LIVES AND SKATES IN VANCOUVER.

David Hackett

DAVID IS NOT ONLY ONE OF THE MOST LEGENDARY SKATERS OF ALL TIME, NOT ONLY THE OLDEST PERSON IN THE WORLD TO DO THE LOOP OF DEATH, HE'S ALSO A SUPER NICE GUY AND BRO'S WITH T-MAG. THOUGH THE HACK MAN DIDN'T RIDE FOR H-STREET BACK IN THE DAY, HE SHOULD HAVE AND DOES SO NOW.

ALLYSHA IS 13 AND SHE RIPS ON A SKATEBOARD. SERIOUSLY. YOU'D NEVER KNOW SHE WAS EVEN A SKATEBOARDER, IF YOU SAW HER ON THE STREET, WHICH IS KINDA RAD.
